

Uppsala University, Department of Economics

2021 Alumni survey, Masters programme (1–5 years after graduation)

COMMENTS ABOUT WORK DUTIES

Socio-economic analyses and investigations, data processing, report writing, impact assessments, research projects.

Web development, data analysis and processing.

Policy evaluation, project management of government assignments and general work on regulatory simplification in the Swedish business community.

Data management, analysing statistics in the housing market.

I am currently working at an embassy where I analyse the country's economic development and its importance to Sweden.

Production of statistics and base data relating to anti-money laundering for internal and external reporting.

